Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(SHRI HANSRAJ GANGARAM AHIR)

(a) to (c): The State-wise and year-wise details of funds released under the Security Related Expenditure (SRE) Scheme for Left Wing Extremism (LWE) affected States, North East (NE), Jammu & Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and Delhi during the last three year and the current year is at Annexure-I.

The Central Government is implementing Security Related Expenditure (SRE) Scheme for the Left Wing Extremism (LWE) affected States to supplement the efforts of State Governments to effectively deal with the problem of LWE.
The SRE Scheme being a reimbursement scheme in nature, the expenditure is first incurred by the State Governments, which is reimbursed by the Central Government as per the existing scheme guidelines.
The multi-pronged efforts of the Government are showing positive impact and results. The incidents of LWE violence and resultant killings have declined significantly since 2011 due to the combined efforts of the Central and State Governments. The State-wise details of LWE violence since 2011 are given at Annexure-II.

(d) & (e): No complaints received in MHA regarding irregularities. However, to ensure that leakages do not occur, expenditure are audited regularly.

(f): The Central Government has been pursuing a multi pronged strategy to tackle LWE insurgency, centered around security related measures and development related interventions. While on security front, the Central
